

PRESS RELEASE

New customer savings from UK's largest distributor

(ref: PJH258 / FEBRUARY 2009)

As part of its continuous customer service enhancement strategy, the PJH Group has launched a new 0800 Freephone and Freefax line for all its customers. The new numbers are 08008 77 88 99 (freephone) and 08008 77 88 00 (freefax).

Replacing a previous Lo-Call 0845 telephone number, PJH customers can now benefit from the freephone and freefax numbers with immediate effect.

Corporate marketing manager, Sally Hough, commented: "Our new 0800 numbers represent another clear saving to the customer. With the economic slowdown affecting many businesses, we continue to evaluate all aspects of our service and introduce as many savings as possible to help make customer businesses more profitable and successful."

The distributor urges all customers to update their pre-set telephones and fax machines with the new numbers as soon as possible, in order to start benefiting from the new free of charge service.
